Change, responsibility, . . . these are but two of the elements that have influenced our lives. As 1974 launches our involvement in the world, these factors will become increasingly prominent. Responsibility is a constant companion of change. We must be responsible: our tool, intellect; our mentor, the past; our charge, the ever-present future.

Dedication

During our years at Westwood High, you touched our lives with more than books and papers; you became a true friend. You were someone who took pride in our accomplishments and was sympathetic to our downfalls. You were always ready to give your time and guidance to those of us who sought it.

Memories are very special things and it will be with great fondness that we look back on your wonderful relationship with the students. We will be forever grateful for your concern for and devotion to our class.

It is therefore with our sincere thanks and love that we dedicate the 1974 Green Years to you, Miss Joan Dillon.

GUIDANCE

With the fast pace of today's modern world, the Westwood High School guidance services are invaluable. Throughout the students' four years at high school, they meet with their counselors to select courses and discuss future plans. College and career conferences are scheduled for many juniors and seniors in the process of planning for their future. The office also has much to offer in the way of college and vocational material and equipment for these students.

MEDIA CENTER

This year students at Westwood High received greater opportunities to increase their knowledge through the extensive library facilities and audio-visual aids the media center has to offer. The educational equipment includes closed-circuit television, video-tape machines and micro-film readers. The upper floor of the media center houses the audio-visual aids while the lower floor contains the materials used for study and research. Tutorial help in science, French, Spanish, English, or the social sciences is provided to students whenever required.

MATHEMATICS

1973-74 has been a year of settling in for the WHS Math Department after the innovations of the math seminar rooms and a more accessible computer. Team teaching continues to be an important part of the math program through which a student can progress at his own rate. The department continues to direct three forms of competition during the year for math students: the Massachusetts Math Olympiad in the fall, the M.A.A. National Mathematics Exam in the spring and the Westwood High School Math Team competes all year long.

The English Department resumed its active role in school life and this year two new members — Mrs. Ballou and Miss Sheffield — joined the fun. "The Sacred Cheese" enjoyed its second year of success, keeping the students informed about events around the school and the town. The literary magazine, "The Harlequin," was revitalized under the supervision of Mrs. Eberly.

Miss Glancy and the Drama Club helped to keep the school entertained with several productions — the musical "Guys and Dolls" and a one-act play contest. The students of the Theater Arts classes carried on the program of teaching elementary school children the basics of acting and directed them in their own productions.

INDUSTRIAL ARTS

Industrial and graphic arts provides students with the opportunity to work with a wide range of industrial processes, materials, and equipment. Students develop their training in industrial vocations and also enrich their educations. Courses are available in woodworking, metalworking, electricity, electronics, crafts, and the field of graphic sciences. Both boys and girls avail themselves of the variety of experiences offered by this department. The graphic arts students showed off their talents this year by printing the school publications, the Sacred Cheese and the Harlequin.

HOME ECONOMICS

The biggest — and most obvious — change in the Home Economics Department this year was the large enrollment of boys. The addition of such courses as Bachelor Foods and Foreign and Gourmet Foods that met only twice a week led to the realization that boys can cook too. Modifications were also made in the sewing courses. This year a new twice weekly class called Sewing Workshop was offered. The Tailoring class, under the supervision of Mrs. Arnold, had quite a good year, highlighted by a trip to New York to see the fashion world at work. Mrs. Burke's Family Living and Child Growth and Development classes continued to participate in the volunteer assistant program in the elementary schools.

BUSINESS

Each year the Business Department proves invaluable in helping many aspiring WHS students prepare for the business and career worlds. The college-bound student finds courses in typewriting of significant value in making schoolwork a little easier and faster. Other course offerings include shorthand, business English, accounting, introduction to business, law, office machines, and office procedures. Indeed, whether a student is headed for college or a career in business, this department can provide him with worthwhile skills.

LANGUAGES

The new electronic classrooms are just one of the features that enable the Language Department to familiarize WHS students with the customs, food, and geography of France and Spain. Latin is offered for those who are interested, and can prove of invaluable assistance in improving a student's English vocabulary and grammatical skills.

The Department also sponsors the French and Spanish Clubs which help students to explore more of the cultural aspects of the countries through trips to restaurants, museums, and theaters.

The Science Department offers a curriculum of courses ranging from an introductory level to advanced placement in chemistry and physics. Under the direction of the teachers, students can learn at their own rates in many of the courses. Independent study is provided for students with a specific field of interest. This department also sponsors the Astronomy Club and arranges for field trips to supplement classroom and laboratory work.

SOCIAL STUDIES

The Social Studies Department, directed by Mr. William Davis, renewed its trend of change. Anthropology, Chinese Civilization, and Indian Civilization were all new semester courses taught by Mr. Stack.

Mr. Beurman's Sociology class continued to draw interesting and informative speakers to the school. Most notable among these were Governor Francis Sargent, U.S. Senator Edward Kennedy, Leverett Saltonstall, and John McCormack.

The Music Department is under the direction of two talented and dedicated teachers, Mr. John Markarian and Mr. Sebastian Bonaiuto. Students are encouraged to participate in all types of activities; singing in the chorus, playing in the band, and writing original compositions. This year courses were offered in music theory and analysis, furthering their exposure to more of the many facets of music. Performances given during the year included the Christmas and Band Exchange Concerts. The year's highlight was the highly-successful presentation of the all-school musical, Guys and Dolls.

Sebastian C. Bonaiuto

The art department under the talented direction of Mr. Thomas DelSignore, Miss Barta Brediger, and Mrs. Judith DesPres is making many opportunities in the art field available to Westwood High School students. Courses in ceramics, art, painting, crafts, and a new introductory class for freshmen allow students to explore new areas. The enlarged program includes more than thirty per cent of the total student body and prepares many of these students for further education in art.

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

The aim of the physical education program is to provide a wide range of challenging activities by exposure to skills which will promote lifelong, healthful physical activity. Stress is also placed upon involving the greatest number of students, encouraging the highest level of individual potential, and making the best use of all available facilities.

In Memoriam

DENNIS REYNOLDS

Dennis:

Whoever said parting was such sweet sorrow, must have known you.

You who had no enemies, in fact spread light upon others' darkness.

You who were compassionate and sensitive towards others.

You who had not a mean bone in your body, but a heart as warm as the sun.

When you left, we each gave you a part of our hearts to bring with you,

As a part of you was left in each of our hearts.

*Our lives were enriched by your love of life,
and love for people.*

Your sincerity, kindness, and unselfishness made you the special person we remember you as.

Though you are no longer with us, our memories and hearts will hold you dear forever . . .

*with Love
—a friend*

SONG FOR TOMORROW'S CHILD

*You are here.
You must be.
You are today, tomorrow and the day before.
At one time?
If tomorrow comes too soon, I will be there.
If it is late, I shall also be there when it comes.
Where am I? I am right here.
That is what is important.
The surf sweeps on past a broken shoal
 I see you there.
The wind blows free towards an unknown shore
 I ride the wind there.
The stars stand bright in a midnight sky
 It is everyone who is there.
Today is alive
It must be.
We are alive
Time?
 Do you know the time?
We are alive: that's what time it is.
To be alive forever is to climb and fall
And rise again
To be alive is to reach inside to let everything in.
We are alive. We are alive within.
That is what is important.
We will be the same, and different
As from one today to the next
As from one yesterday to tomorrow.
We are tomorrow's children.
Are we the eons that passed before?
Are we the generations that lie ahead?
We are all of everything there is.
For we are tomorrow's children.*

Class History

September — 1970 — We arrived—Freshmen—a step up from junior high, but still the lowest of the underclassmen. We elected our class officers, knowing that our effect on school affairs would be slight, but President Dave McGinnis; Vice President Nancy McDermott; Secretary Helen Gemba; and Treasurer Mary Kirby; tried anyway. Remember when we had homeroom at the end of the day? Up and down staircases!? selling "Westwood cushions" and SILENT studies filled with yo-yo's? Who won the pink stuffed gorilla for selling the most magazines?

Our first high school dance—the dance no one quite remembers—no one seemed to attend, but our bank account felt the effects anyway.

After a long and degrading year, we passed "GO" and advanced to sophomore status.

September, 1971 — Sophomores! Our class officers: President Dave McGinnis, Vice President Helen Gemba, Secretary Jackie Cappello, and Treasurer Nancy McCormack organized a successful (finally!!) Bruins raffle which helped our deficit-ridden bank account.

Construction and destruction for the new addition constantly interrupted our daily routine. Each day the announcements brought news of forbidden areas, and we had to "brown bag" it in our homerooms.

Do you remember seeing a battalion of moppers, painters, and scrubbers entering the school early one Saturday morning? Creativity got a little out of hand; turning the girls' room into a checkerboard and covering the lobby floor with red polka dots. The floor washers got a little overzealous and the public address system announced flash floods in the "old new wing." This was definitely a first! Two down, two to go.

September, 1972 — Junior year was a year of "firsts" for Westwood High: The school newspaper, "The Sacred Cheese", the Student Council store, the One-Act plays, and the first school musical, "Bye Bye Birdie." A little nostalgia and fun were introduced when the drama department sponsored "Fifties Day" and "Fantasy Day."

The driver's license was the status symbol as we started to fill the student parking lot with our parents' station wagons. SAT's and achievement tests increased our awareness of how quickly we would be leaving the security of Westwood High School.

Fortunately, our junior year also saw the end of United States involvement in the Vietnam War. Our troops and POW's finally came home. However, Watergate was quickly becoming a household word, and gave the AV department a use for their battalion of new color televisions.

Our class officers were: President Ed Smith, Vice President Helen Gemba, Secretary Jackie Cappello, and Treasurer Nancy McCormack.

September, 1973 — It seemed that "senioritis" hit our class early. Perhaps we had it since the beginning of our freshman year. Or maybe it was just an aspect of the national energy crisis. Our officers were all re-elected to serve us for one more year and made a gallant attempt to encourage involvement in class activities. However, change seemed almost impossible after three years of relative apathy.

The Senior Class Banquet was a success with plenty of roast beef and live entertainment. Senior superlatives were awarded, and "gag" prizes were presented to various students and faculty members. Our dance band and Jeff Morleys' group provided the musical moments and Marshal Dillon kept things in line with her newly-acquired sheriff's outfit.

Helen Gemba and her doughnut detail brought in a great deal of cold cash to ease the financial pinch until heavy-handed Nancy's pleas for dues were met. Wasn't it amazing how quickly the seniors came up with the five dollar deposit for the prom?

"Stairway to Heaven" was held at the Chateau de Ville with our beautiful queen Jill Whitley and her Court reigning over the festivities. Despite our efforts, the chandelier didn't collapse and the band never learned to play the theme!

Mash was a smash and Bruce still has his accent. One activity in which we gladly participated was the annual Senior Skip Day. Our spirits weren't dampened by the rain as a large crew of seniors participated in the festivities at South Cape Beach. We shall be forever indebted to Mr. D. for so brilliantly displaying his talents in riot and mob control during the excitement of the mice prank in the cafeteria. Mr. Thwing's butterfly net also proved invaluable in trapping those little culprits. Phase II included a beautiful wall mural designed in the shape of '74 as a reminder that our final year at WHS was fast coming to a conclusion. And of course all those red eyes were really the result of too much studying—and yet there were those who, regardless of the energy crisis, continued to operate on a full tank!

Westwood High will never be a "Walt Whitman" to us, but we had a good time, anyway. Surely the last tradition we'll follow will be those tears shed at graduation.

Football

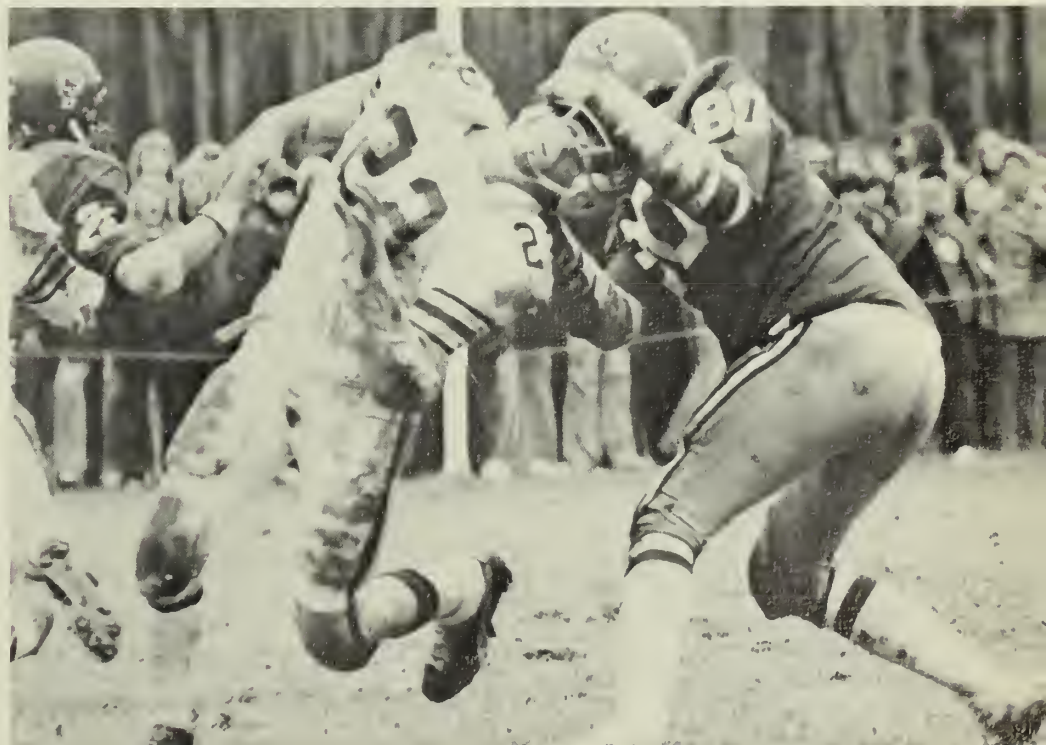

"dis and dat" ... "decent" ... 150% ... "Come on, come on boy!" ... "Some of you guys got real mouths—this and that!!" ... Irv and his Beach Boys???

The Tri-Valley League received its new members from Westwood very well, as the Wolverines ended up in second place with their best record in ten years, 7-1-1. The long hard summer of training—including a week at football camp—paid off, and the Westwood fans were shown what team effort and togetherness, on and off the field, could accomplish.

This year the Wolverines were led by Tri-Captains Mickey Woicik, Mike Conway, and Doug Munroe. More guidance along the victory trail was provided by Head Coach Paul Tuccelli, and his assistants Ray Kodzis and Walt Alessi.

Several team members were the recipients of awards given in recognition of their fine performances throughout the season. Most Valuable Lineman and Most Valuable Player of the Thanksgiving Day Game went to Mickey Woicik; Mike Conway was selected as the Most Valuable Back and tied for the Tri-Valley leading scorer with 74 points. The Unsung Hero was Doug Munroe, and The Coaches Award was presented to Dave Adleman.

Highlights of the season included shutting out Wayland 14-0, a feat never accomplished in Westwood's history, and a Thanksgiving Day victory against a powerful Holliston team, which has only lost 2 league games in the last 3 years. Another accomplishment was the election of Mickey Woicik, Mike Conway, Mike Kelly, Dave Adleman, and Doug Munroe to the Tri-Valley All Star Team.

Basketball

Mr. Thwing once again extended the tradition of basketball excellence at WHS with a 15 wins and 5 losses record in the Tri-Valley League and one tournament victory. The 1973-74 team was led by co-captains Jack McGrail, a senior, and Dave Whalen, a junior. The front court was a question at the beginning of the year, but seniors Scott Colpitts and Joe Guinta were both much improved over last year. They solidified the defense, averaging 30 rebounds per game as a pair. Junior Brian Harrington filled the other forward position in the starting unit.

Seniors Bill Kraus and Doug Munroe and junior Albie Jarvis sparked the team in two crucial games against Dover and Medfield. Junior Larry Zorio and sophomore Mike Miller came in to press when the team needed offense and points. The team thanks the loyal fans and the Huns for following them throughout the season.

WINTER TRACK

The powerful Winter Track team shook the Tri-Valley League by STREAKING to a 6-1 league record and capturing second place. With strong leadership from Captains J. Gary Love, Mike Keane, and Don Swann, much new talent was developed. The team's depth and strong desire to win helped bring about a maximum effort. The tracksters were very impressive in the league meet as Brad Watts and Mickey Woick captured first place in their events. Don Swann and Dave Greenwood received second places, Gary Love and Mike Kelly were awarded fourth places, while Bob Bennett, Rob Murphy, Greg White, and Chip Coleman received fifth places. This year 18 members of the Winter Track team qualified for the state meet. Senior Mickey Woick obtained a 4th place in this state meet. The team received 3 trophies and is anxiously looking to next year when a good season is expected.

CROSS COUNTRY

This year's cross country team had an outstanding season with a fine record of eight wins and four losses. The team consisted of thirty members, three of whom — John Corey, Rich Russ, and Gary Love — were seniors. Under the leadership of Tri-Captains Don Swann, Mike Keane, and Gary Love, and Coach Harvey Fischler, the team had a lot of spirit and even more talent. There were several top runners and many course records were broken. Everyone performed well, and all had an enjoyable time, making the season even more of a success.

Circle up... "C'mon, work on it!"... You're winners now... "Get on it, Fab"... "Calm down, Polo!"...

These were some of the common sounds on the soccer field this year. This was the best season the team has ever had; it was also the first. The team's record was 3-4-1, not bad for beginners. Tri-Captains were Brian Harrington, Steve Polechronis, and Jim Faviano, and the senior members included Ken Decatur, Paul Luippold, Pete Weiser, and Bob Hedlund. A winning season is assured next year by this hard working team.

Hockey

The hockey team completed a difficult season in a very tough league. Despite their losses, the team remained enthusiastic and optimistic. Captains Mike Conway, Dave Adleman, and Paul Luippold, aided by the coaching of Kevin Crowe, strengthened the team throughout the season. Recognition was given after the regular season as center Jim Riordan was named to the Daily Transcript All-Stars.

GETTING UP IN THE WORLD GIRLS' BASKETBALL

The '73-'74 season proved to be a highly successful one as the girls finished with an overall record of 18-1. The girls captured the Tri-Valley League trophy by bombing all opponents by at least 20 points and going undefeated. The team also defeated the Tri-Valley League Allstars, 46-43, in a close game.

By winning at least 75% of their games, the girls qualified for the State tournament in the Southeast Regional tournament. The Westwood Girls defeated Bishop Stang, Weymouth North, and Hingham before losing in the finals to Hanover.

The tournament was a new experience for both Coach Delaney and the players. Things look bright for next season as only three seniors graduated: Kathy Lindemayer, Co-captain Nancy McDermott, and Barbara Seward. Six varsity players are returning as well as many talented junior varsity players. The J. V., under a new coach, Miss Sheffield, played extremely well for a young team, finishing the season with a record of 9-5.

the Spirit...

Girls' Gymnastics Team

The Westwood High Girls' Gymnastics team enjoyed one of its best seasons ever this year, with a record of 6 wins and 2 losses. Co-captains for the 1973-74 team were seniors Barbara Barden and Liz Griffin. The entire team really worked hard, had plenty of fun, and sincerely appreciate the excellent coaching of Mrs. Jane Grube.

Girls' Track

The girls' track team ended their second season with a 9-2 record. This record is the result of hard work, determination, and dedication by the squad. Miss Kathy Schurz and her Tri-Captains—Margie Stockford, Pam Flynn, and Donna Richardson, helped lead the team to a victorious season.

Freshman speedster Nancy Fabiano won second place in the district meet and placed third in the 100 meter at the state meet.

The young team is looking forward to many successful seasons as they are only losing two seniors; Margie Stockford and Veronica Weider.

GIRLS' FOOTBALL

Although the powderpuff team had no victories this year, the members had a great deal of fun. Captains Joanne Reese and Lindsay Henderson led the team through its two-game season with its opponent Norwood. Coaches John Atchue, Brian Harrington, and Dave Clement did their best to make a workable football team out of a large group of enthusiastic girls. Thanks to their efforts, everyone got to play and the girls raised almost $100 for the AFS Club.

SKI TEAM

Although the ground was green more than white this winter, the ski team found enough snow to have four slalom meets, three cross country meets and good times at Big Blue. A pleasant surprise was the super skier, Scott Broodherst, who was undefeated until he broke his leg near the close of the season. Co-captains Jill Whitley and Peter Mullarky did an excellent job supporting the team with points galore.

Under the dedicated coaching of Mrs. McKissock, seniors Jane Berglund, Betsey Pratt, Sue MacPherson, and Dave Wilson all did good work in helping the team place third for the season.

The team looks forward to next year with hopes resting on younger and eager competitors.

Swim Team

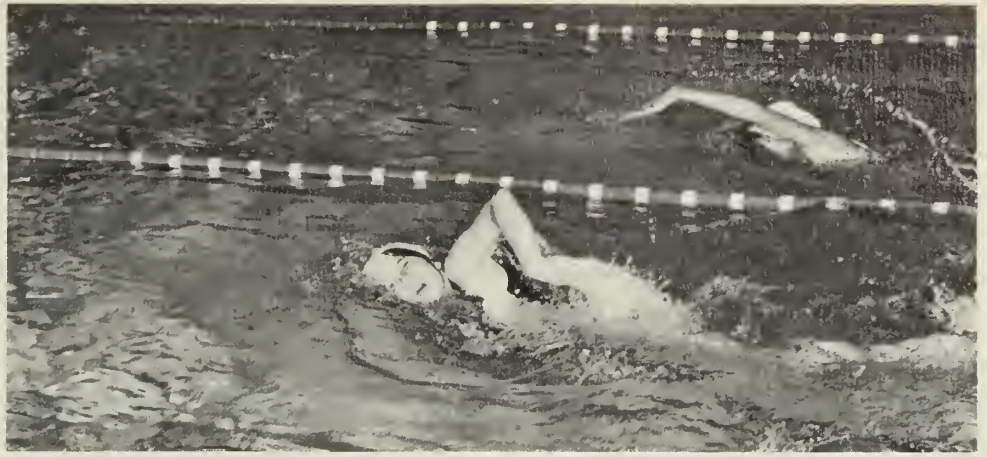

The boys' swim team closed a powerful season with an 11-2 league record. The swimmers captured third place in the league—a much-improved standing over last year. Strong performances by Captains Andy Boyle, Mark Reilly, and Rob Perlman aided the team in their victories. School records were set by Rob Perlman, Bob Mulhall, Michael Sullivan, and Frank Earley in the 400 Freestyle; Bob Mulhall in the 200 Individual Medley, 200 Freestyle, and 500 Freestyle; and Jack Reardon in the 100 Backstroke.

Girls' Swim Team

The girls' swim team, led by co-captains Arlene Barbieri and Betsey Pratt, a senior, enjoyed a super season this year with their best record ever, 10-0. Westwood placed first at the Southern Massachusetts Divisional Meet while the divers, led by senior Julie Rogers, swept first, second, and third places. The team was also successful in the Eastern and State competitions. Seniors on the team included Vanessa Keyes, Paula Kouri, and Lee Bernardo. The girls hope to continue on their winning streak next year.

The Westwood High 1973-74 cheerleading squad was outfitted with new uniforms and shakers plus a new gym to cheer in. Throughout the football and basketball seasons, the girls performed many new stunts which later enabled them to do well in competition. Thanks to "the Huns" and the large groups of avid spectators, the cheerleaders were able to cheer Westwood's teams on to victorious seasons.

Student Council

The Student Council, under the leadership of Nancy McDermott, Brian Harrington, and Barbara Seward, had a very successful year. A council-sponsored dance in mid-winter and the continuation of the school store were a few of the more important topics considered throughout the year. The council was also very active in daily school affairs.

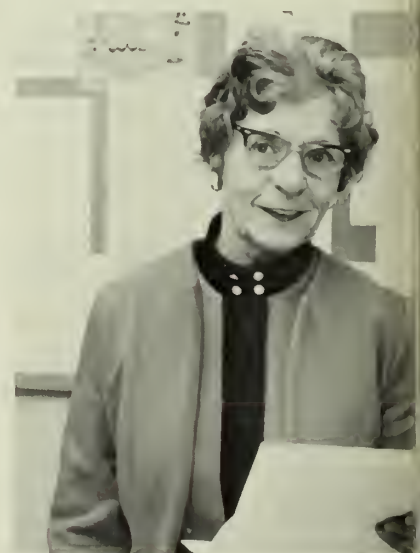

A Fond Farewell

It was with mixed emotions that Westwood High bid farewell to two long-time members of its staff, Mrs. Anna Cavanaugh and Mrs. Evelyn Way. We were saddened by their departure, yet we hoped that the future would bring them happiness. We will always be grateful for their many years of dedicated service to both faculty and students.

We sincerely thank them and wish them good luck.

The Student Advisory Board offers Westwood High students the opportunity to communicate with the faculty and administration. This body is necessary and helpful in order to promote and exchange ideas concerning student life at our school.

American Field Service Club

AFS Club sponsored a very successful International Dinner and an AFS weekend this year. The club's formation will hopefully stimulate students' desire to meet people from different cultures.

Student-Faculty Forum

The Student-Faculty Forum is a school government body which meets monthly and is comprised of Faculty Senate members, Student Council members, and at-large representatives from the faculty and student body. The last two years were spent with hard work on student issues resulting from the new addition—most importantly the no-pass zone. The Forum led a fairly quiet year, being mainly concerned with the determination of class rank.

DRAMA

The 1973-74 Drama Club, directed by Miss "Nancy" Glancy and President Kim Brooks, produced many successful shows: the fall one-act plays, the school musical, the drama festival play, the senior class play. M*A*S*H and the spring one-act plays were all part of Miss Glancy's creations. Long hours of rehearsals, tryouts, improvisations, and the National Thespian induction also kept the club moving. These productions, along with the inspiration from Miss Glancy, made the Drama Club one of the happiest and most active groups around.

TALK ABOUT RELEVANCE

DEBATING TEAM

Under the direction of Miss Joan Dillon, Westwood High initiated a Debating Team this year. The team joined the South Shore Debating League and visited several schools to observe novice debates in tournament competition.

This year's debate topic was: Resolved: that the Federal government should provide each family a guaranteed annual income.

It is hoped that the group will grow next year and that the members will be able to qualify as experienced debaters.

Business Club

These highly-skilled students perform numerous secretarial and clerical tasks for their school and community. Their skills in shorthand, typing and business machines, enables them to perform their varied duties with a high level of efficiency which has earned them a respected reputation that they have enjoyed over the past years.

We have, of course, do's and don't's for the business world:

Mrs. H's "Never, never, never" . . . "No homework again?" . . . independent clause . . . "I don't want to give you another lecture, but" . . . "Consider the source!" . . . double periods . . . "Can we have the test tomorrow?" . . . Mr. F's favorite, "When in doubt don't" . . . And of course the world's most promising secretaries — D.B., R.B., N.M., N.B., D.T., D.E., J.F., J.C., B.A., H.G., "R.G."

ASTRONOMY CLUB

Despite the failure of the comet Kahoutek, the Astronomy Club had a very active year. Assisted by Faculty Advisor Raymond F. Keegan, numbers could often be found in the field on clear nights, their eyes to the sky. Activities included field trips to the Seagraves Observatory in Rhode Island and lectures at the Harvard Observatory.

Astronomy Club — Kneeling, left to right: J. Cook, P. Garvey, L. Frazee, B. Carvill, S. Hubbard, G. Lester. Standing: D. Keegan, M. Keegan, P. Kontrimas, B. Nelson, R. Price, Mr. R. Keegan, Advisor.

Only a few people in the world like this.

Lacrosse Club

Westwood High's first Lacrosse Club played extremely well this year considering their inexperience. Under the direction of Coach Walter Alessi, the boys played successfully against several top teams that have been playing for many years.

The entire team deserves a lot of credit and we wish them successful seasons in the years to come.

Conservation Club

This year's Conservation Club was brought together by a deep interest in ecology and a clean environment. The club's members, although few in number, forwarded their cause by cleaning local areas and assisting community conservation projects.

French Club

The French Club, under the leadership of Elaine Hanlon and faculty advisor Mrs. Gean, had a very successful year. Dinners and many other activities highlighted the year.

MATH TEAM

Westwood High's Math Team competes approximately once a month in the Greater Boston Math League. Five students participate in each meet in five different categories and one team question. Members are constantly plagued with bad food and stupid errors and occasionally blessed with an easy category and a perfect paper. This year the team did quite well and took part in the playoffs.

Math Team — Sitting, left to right: K. Bresnahan, J. Atkins, C. Ivan, M. Stockford. Standing: F. Cogswell, E. Bousa, Mr. J. Pender, Advisor, M. Stone.

PEP CLUB

The WHS Pep Club, under the leadership of Kathy Yavarow, showed its spirit by attending many of our schools' games, meets, and matches. Fortunately the club members had many successful seasons to cheer for!

Midnight decorations before the victorious Thanksgiving Day game and rowdy basketball crowds were all part of this year's activities. As Kathy is just a junior, next year's club should be just as good—or perhaps even better!

Pep Club — First row, left to right: S. Harrington, R. Pearlman, B. Murphy, B. Harrington, C. McCarthy, L. Henderson, J. Clegg, D. Kane, J. Downey. Second row: C. Bero, D. Band, M. Hanley, M. HARLEQUIN

This year, Westwood High's literary magazine, The Harlequin, has expanded its issue to include music, photography, artwork as well as prose and poetry. Editor-in-Chief Debbie Hochanadel and Assistant Editor Jean Carlevale have compiled the handicrafts of several Westwood students under the direction of their new faculty advisor, Mrs. Eberly. Two publications were presented by the staff this year and more of the same excellent quality are anticipated next year.

The Sacred Cheese realized many of its objectives in this its second year of publication. Editor Michelle Chicoine and faculty advisor Mrs. Evelyn Malm brought out many interesting as well as controversial articles.

A first in the paper's history was the printing of the "Cheese" by WHS's Graphic Arts Department. This new endeavor will hopefully have much success in the future.

DANCE BAND

This year's WHS Dance Band met with great success at performances given at the senior and junior class banquets, and concerts at the elementary schools. To top off the year, the band took its annual trip to Maine, venturing into Canada for the first time in the history of the group.

The members thank Mr. Paul Monaghan for his unending co-operation and dedication to them.

AUDIO VISUAL

The Audio-Visual Club aided the functioning of the Media Center. This volunteer group of students assisted both teachers and students by doing minor repair work on equipment, caring for the studio and instructing faculty members in the operation of the machinery. This group has an important and expanding future as audio-visual materials and their use continue to increase at Westwood High School.

Mrs. Anne Bradley

For more than seventeen years, Mrs. Anne Bradley, served students at Westwood High with affection and dedication. Her untimely death in October, 1973 ended a devoted service which saw our library grow under her guidance from a single wall of books in the "old school" cafeteria to its present proportions.

Mrs. Bradley was an uncompromising idealist. Unwilling to remain silent when she saw pain and injustice in the world around her, she spoke out—and acted—to make this world just a little better place.

She will be remembered for this deeply felt idealism, her unflagging enthusiasm, and her hard working devotion to the students of Westwood High School.

We had our own ideas about what a book should be . . .

To perpetuate the memories of our "green years" is the purpose of our yearbook. Under the direction of Co-Editors Kris Kaligian and Deb Hochanadel, the staff of the 1974 Green Years set out to accomplish this task. Full coverage of all senior activities was assured when the class voted to follow last year's precedent of a fall yearbook.

The editorial staff would like to thank everyone who helped to make this publication possible, especially Sue MacPherson, Bruce Lynch, and Cindy Bero. The hard work and long hours involved were greatly appreciated.

Co-Editors Debbie Hochanadel and Kris Kaligian with Adviser, Charles Flahive.

Senior Class Banquet

The senior class banquet, following the theme of "Memory-Go-Round", was a giant success. The cafeteria was converted into a large carousel with painted horses. Pictures of our four years in high school were all over the walls and the night was one of memories. Entertainment was provided by the WHS Dance Band and a group led by Jeff Morley.

Kris Kaligian and Debbie Hohanadel announced the Senior Class Superlatives and novelty presents were "awarded" to many students and faculty advisors.

CLASS DAY

Class Day is set aside to recognize outstanding students for their contributions in the areas of academics and athletics.

Principal Duane Kocina, along with his assistant principals and coaches, gave awards to these deserving students. At the end of the exercises, Kris Kaligian and Debbie Hohanadel dedicated the 1974 Green Years to Miss Joan Dillon. Amid thunderous applause, "Marshall" Dillon accepted the honor and concluded the ceremonies.

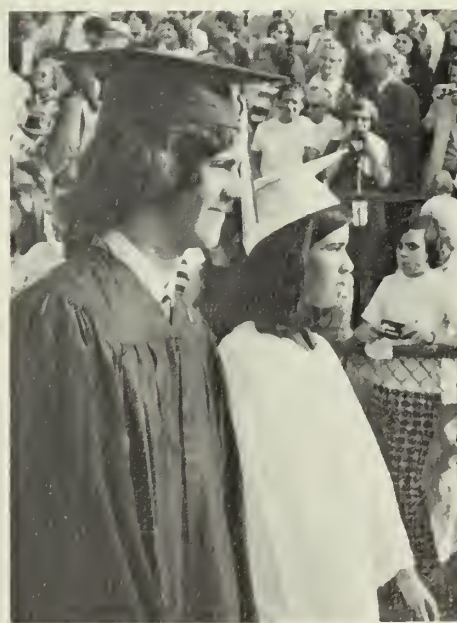

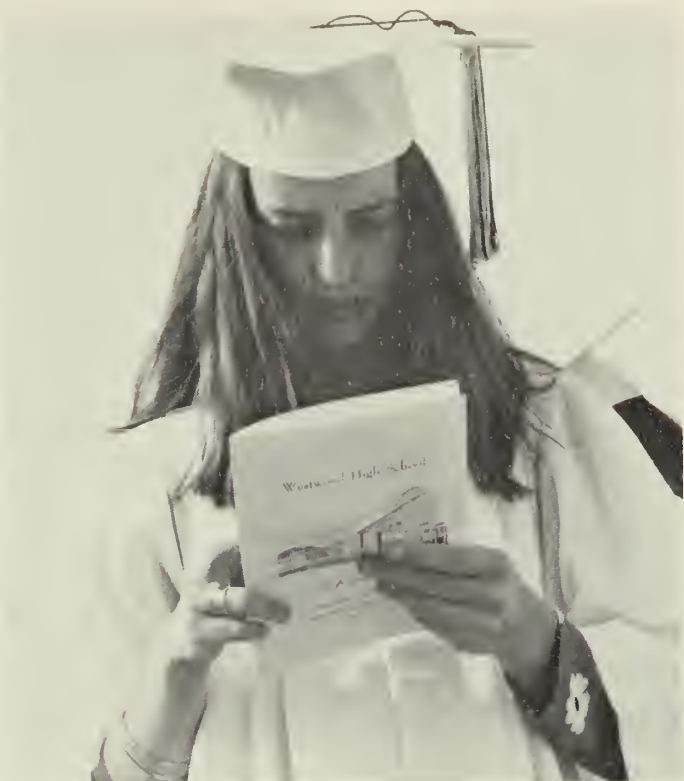

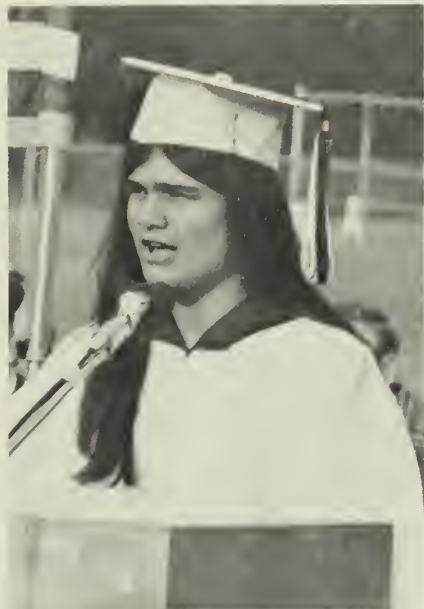

"The future is not a gift; it is an achievement."

The Class of 1974—together we spent many years preparing for the future of graduation. Now we must turn to the task of preparing ourselves for the future of our individual lives. During our years at Westwood High, we began to seek purpose in our lives . . .

The time has come for us to dauntlessly meet our separate destinies. Now the world is before us leading to the "unknown", which we, by insight into ourselves and the universe, shall make the "known".
